

THE CHILD AND THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH

There are child who ask for bread;
There are child who ask for shelter;
There are child who ask for caress;
There are child who ask for patient;
There are child who ask for attention;
There are child who ask for hope.

There are too many children in the world that will be the next generation.

Today they ask for all of us somewhat we can offer, at someway at somewhere.

Nobody is hindered to attend these children, our sons, nephews, grandchildren, abandoned or rejected children or orphan's children.

They dream to be what we can't be until now and they are the hope to realize a better world.

The child is a seed and lives a very special phase of the Spirit and symbolizes the pureness and innocence into the Kingdom.

The child will be the Engineer who will construct bridges and hospitals;

The Lawyer who will defend the justice of the causes;

The Teacher who will teach what was studied;

And the Doctor who will save lives.

The child will be revealed the reality as a tomorrow's landscape, the sigh of the heart that beat and fight.

And the strength that sublimates the oldness' enchantment;

The child is a mute angel.

Their tears are presages – their smiles are songs that rejoice our soul.

The Spirit of the Truth announces in the Spiritual World the importance to be applied to the child.
