

THINK ABOUT THIS...

Analyze that:

Who direct receive orders too;

Orient the other but doesn't intend to be agreeable with everybody;

Learn with the own mistakes;

Receive more critiques than eulogies;

Meet up vulnerable to the others' opinion that ever observes defects at all and in everybody;

In certain circumstances is the slave of the capricious of which he commands;

Listen frequently: "Do this, or do that!" by the bad seeders who want the division through the people;

Is alone when the smash fall above his shoulders;

Never is remembered at a pray's heart, because they suppose he is absolutely capable to win the hardships of life;

Remember that the experience of command that you condemn today, maybe will be yours tomorrow.

My friend if you embrace our Doctrine as personal behavior in order to help our friends at the spiritist's house,

Don't create embarrass,

Don't fells hurt,

Don't make gossip,

Don't speak of the other's business,

Don't bring problems,

Give Solutions!

Don't rest on the appearance of the goodness;

Make efforts to be an example!
